ANACOSTIA.

Residents of the Randle Highlands district are becoming impatient over the delay in improving Forts Davis and Dupont, in this section, which were purchased several years ago as public parks. At that time the property owners in the neighborhood were assessed for benefits for a large part of the cost of the land.

Recent inquiry brought out that the property had not been turned over to the office of public buildings and the work already done.

Mr. Upshaw took exception to the accounts in the Washington papers of the meeting that took place in Upper Mariboro on Tuesday, He said
the statement that the temperance people were going to fight the tobacco industry was foolish. Mr. Upshaw stated opponents of prohibition had endeavored to bring the question of religion into the discussions.
He declared that church leaders,
both Catholic and Protestant, were fighting side by side for the elimination of liquor, and said that where prohibition was m force the savings
banks showed increased deposits.
Following the meeting here, Mr. Upshaw addressed a meeting at Lakeland.

By JOHN H. HEARLY

(United Press Staff Correspondent) WITH THE ITALIAN ARMY NEAR GORITZ, Oct. 5.-Rudolph Pill, formerly of the Manhattan and Metropolitan Opera companies, was one of the Italian war heroes who took part in the dash that drove the Austrians from Monte St. Michele. Pill was in Rome at the outbreak of the war rehearsing Rigoletto. He was engaged to sing the leading role at the Adriano in Rome and programmed to appear at 9 o'clock one evening. One the noon of the same day he was called to the colors and now is serving as the commanding now is serving as the commanding lieutenant of an artillery battery here on the Carso. Pill's mellow tenor came floating out of a shack at the foot of St. Michele while Austrian cannon bomed an accompaniment in the distance.

Pill's brother, Dr. Thomas Pili, is practicing in Philadelphia. His sister, Mrs. Aida Monticelli, lives in Washington, and his American sweetheart in Cincinnati.
